

Kajetan Drozd & Piotr Rożankowski

blues & rockabilly

Kajetan Drozd & Piotr Rożankowski are two remarkable Polish musicians who share passion for blues and rockabilly music. Kajetan Drozd, the charismatic guitarist, vocalist, harmonica player, composer, and winner of many prestigious festivals in Poland is accompanied by Piotr Rożankowski, an outstanding double bass player whose technique of playing "slap" deserves special attention. The duo's repertoire is Kajetan's original compositions, energetic and unique.

With a drummer, Pawel Rozkrut, they won the Polish Blues Challenge, and received an invitation to the 2011 International Blues Challenge in Memphis, USA. As a "Kajetan Drozd Acoustic Trio" they also performed at the FedEx International Showcase.

The most significant about them is the passion and energy that flows from their music, which speaks powerfully to the audience and guarantees a great time at the concerts. This duo is worth seeing!
